Popular wisdom

Wine bottles – red

Bourgogne Mâcon Azé « Fût de Chêne » bottle 75cl 22,00

Gamay. Cave de Viré.

Aged for a year in oak barrels, this wine has a beautiful ruby red colour. It is concentrated and slightly tannic with flavours of red fruits and spices.

Bourgogne AOC « Clos St. Pierre » glass 12cl 5,20 / bottle 75cl 26,00

Pinot Noir. Le Chais St. Pierre.

A very well-balanced wine with flavours of black berries.

Côtes de Beaune AOC « Marange 1er Cru » bottle 75cl 30,00

Pinot Noir. Domaine Pascal Brazey.

Dark, ruby red colour. Flavours of red fruits and spices with pleasant peppery notes on the palate.

Beaujolais AOC « Saint Amour » bottle 75cl 23,00

Gamay. Domaine des Roches Noires.

Well balanced, elegant, with cherry aromas.

You are welcome to take your opened bottles of wine with you!

Wine bottles – white

Bourgogne « Saint Veran » AOC bottle 75cl 25,00

Chardonnay. Domaine des Roches Noires.

Bright, golden colour with aromas of toast, butter and pear.

Bourgogne « Montagny 1^{er} Cru » glass 12cl 6,00 / bottle 75cl 30,00

Chardonnay. Domaine des Vignes Bleues.

This light golden wine reveals complex aromas of lemon and white flowers (acacia, hawthorn). The elegant flavour offers aromas of toasted bread and butter with a mineral finish.

Wine bottles – rosé

Beaujolais La Rose Nacarat bottle 75cl 18,00

Gamay. Vignerons des Pierrés Dorées.

This lovely rosé is rich in fresh red fruits; a good balance between sweetness and acidity gives it length, finesse and a 'creamy' note on the finish.

Crémant

Crémant de Bourgogne AOC « BRUT » bottle 75cl 23,00

Cuvée made from Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, Gamay and Aligoté. Les Caves Bailly Lapierre.

A complex bouquet, elegance, fine bubbles and lovely freshness.

“ It is a pity that wine cannot be caressed and fondled. Kurt Tucholsky, german author “

— Wine bottles – red —

Arbois Trousseau glass 12cl 5,40 / bottle 75cl 27,00

A late ripening, demanding grape variety stemming from the Comtoise region. This rare and surprising wine develops intense, spicy flavours with hints of red fruit.

Arbois Tradition Rouge glass 12cl 4,80 / bottle 75cl 24,00

A cuvée of 40% Poulsard, 30% Trousseau and 30% Pinot Noir, aged separately in barrels for 12 months. This wine combines the characteristics of the three grape varieties: soft tannins, flavours of red fruits, cherries and blueberries, supported by a spicy note.

— Wine bottles – white —

L'Étoile Chardonnay glass 12cl 5,20 / bottle 75cl 26,00

The Chardonnay grape from the Jura originally comes from Burgundy, but has been cultivated in the Jura since the 10th century. The „L'Étoile“ appellation produces a floral and mineral wine with citrus and peach flavours.

Côtes du Jura Tradition glass 12cl 6,20 / bottle 75cl 31,00

After 4 years in barrel, the Chardonnay and Savagnin grapes are blended together. With its brilliant golden colour, this wine combines finesse and power, and surprises you with its aromas of hazelnut, almond and Comté cheese.

Côtes du Jura Savagnin glass 12cl 7,50 / bottle 75cl 39,00

This grape variety expresses all the character of the Jura terroir. It has a beautiful old gold colour, is very powerful on the palate and impresses with notes of fresh nuts, dried fruit and exceptional length and complexity.
